Meet our 2026 team!

What is Shaolin Team Canada (STC)?

Our Mission

Cultivate Canada's top Shaolin martial art talents and showcase them to the world.

About us

In 2014 the schools of Shaolin Temple Quanfa Institute, along with the support of Shaolin Luohan Temple, founded STC, bringing Shaolin athletes together to represent Canada.

Today, STC is a formally registered Canadian non-profit organization dedicated to assisting Canadian athletes with their training and preparation, so they can proudly represent Canada in Shaolin tournaments around the world.

Our 2026 team is made up of 50 athletes, many having competed in the 2014 and 2018 festivals, winning gold in many traditional Shaolin competition categories.

Shaolin Team Canada is training hard in preparation for the competition in China in 2026, and your support is essential to help our athletes in their quest to win gold and international recognition for Canada.

Not just any martial arts tournament...

The International Shaolin Wushu Festival is a biennial competition held in Zhengzhou, China, considered to be the Shaolin Olympics of traditional martial arts.

This globally recognized event brings together over 2,000 athletes from 50 countries around the world to celebrate a mutual love of traditional martial arts in the spirit of respect and friendship.

So what

This is the Shaolin Olympics! Such a grand occasion to honour our passion for Shaolin culture and support today's Canadian martial art talents! And we need your help to represent Canada on this unique international stage and show our stellar Shaolin talent to the world!

We are celebrated by our city

Dear Shaolin Temple Quanfa Institute,

It is my pleasure to extend my support to Shaolin Team Canada at the Zhengzhou International Shaolin Wushu Festival 2026, and celebrate the talents and skills of 46 Canadian athletes. This tournament showcases the spirit that each athlete embodies - focus, perseverance, drive, respect, compassion, and leadership.

I see an amazing community that is committed to raising awareness while creating meaningful engagement, inclusion and representation.

We celebrate this tight-knit community and the incredible support they create. We honour our dedicated instructors and the welcoming learning environment they create. And above all, we celebrate the power of martial arts to connect us, to inspire us, and to drive positive change in our lives and in our city.

As the local City Councillor for the Shaolin Temple Quanfa Institute, I am committed to supporting local organizations where they help people harness their talents and skills, while enjoying our incredible neighbourhoods, and investing in the future of our Canadian athletes.

In a city like ours, together with our many amazing community groups, and my colleagues from every level of government, we can work together to ensure that our Canadian athletes continue to thrive for years to come and that all neighbours can continue to imagine a future here.

Go Shaolin Team Canada!

Best,

Government Support

We are hoping to secure government support through municipal, provincial and federal grant opportunities. Our sphere of influence has grown considerably over the past decade. With 5 schools and over 1,000 students across Canada, we are seeking help to accelerate the growth of Shaolin culture and spread awareness of the profound health benefits for Canadians.

We are seeking recognition of STC and its mission, as we represent Canada in the 2026 Wushu tournament in Zhengzhou, China.

Other Donations

Donations of services and comforts to support, accelerate and reward the dedication of our Shaolin athletes will be accepted with much thanks and appreciation.

Letters of Support

With invitations to perform and demonstrate Shaolin techniques at many community and municipal events, our team continues to build a reputation as leaders in Shaolin in Canada. We are seeking letters of support from prominent institutions or individuals to continue to build this reputation at home and establish Canadian expertise abroad.

Media Exposure

We believe we have a great story to tell, one about strive, perseverance, compassion and leadership – one that we think could have tremendous impact on the people of Canada, as can be seen from our previous television appearances. What is Shaolin?

Traditional Shaolin

Shaolin is a 1,500 year old culture, originally founded in a temple in a forest at Dengfeng, China. Today, Shaolin is known for its incredible martial arts, and is an iconic symbol of Chinese culture.

While there are many different schools and styles of martial arts, Shaolin is unique in its holistic approach to training, combining both physical and mental development.

We are not a religious institution, and practice instead Shaolin Chan philosophy, which teaches us how to deal with the stress of daily life and to strive for clarity and mindfulness through meditation. Chan philosophy is compatible with all religions and forms of spirituality.

These traditional teachings continue in Canada under the leadership of Grand Master Shi Guo Song, who founded the Shaolin Luohan Temple.

About Grand Master Shi Guo Song

- Shi Guo Song is a 34th generation Shaolin monk, trained at the Shaolin temple from the age of 7
- He is a 7th generation Shaolin Fo Han Boxing Master
- Studied Buddhism under Master Shi Shen Ci
- One of the Ten Famous Arhats (Top Temple Guards) at the Shaolin Temple, Songshan Mountain, Dengfeng
- Settled in Canada in 2007 establishing the Shaolin Temple Quanfa Institute

About Master Dao

- 35th generation traditional Shaolin disciple of Master Shi Guo Song
- Studied Taiji under Master Chen
- Founded STQI Toronto in 2009

With Master Shi Guo Song's leadership, we now represent one of the most authentic Shaolin cultures outside of the original Shaolin Temple in China. We need to showcase Canada alongside the world's best Shaolin martial artists at this prestigious international tournament.

With your collective support we will be able to further develop our athletes, encourage participation, and educate others about the mental and physical health benefits of Shaolin martial arts, qigong, and meditation.
